THISABILITY

Community Center

ThisAbility Community Center provides programs, resources, and community connections for children and adults with disabilities and their families. Through weekly center activities, creative arts, social engagement, caregiver support groups, and community events, the center serves as both a safe gathering place and a trusted resource hub, supporting families as they navigate services, and individuals to reduce isolation, and build lasting relationships.

Below are images from our Celebrating Abilities Portrait Campaign, which highlights the individuals we serve.

Dear Applicant:

~~We are pleased to inform you that upon review of your application for tax~~ exempt status we have determined that you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to you are deductible under section 170 of the Code. You are also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under section 2055, 2106 or 2522 of the Code. Because this letter could help resolve any questions regarding your exempt status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

Organizations exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined that you are a public charity under the Code section(s) listed in the heading of this letter.

Please see enclosed Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, for some helpful information about your responsibilities as an exempt organization.
